

London Arts and Humanities Partnership with the Royal Central School of Speech and Drama

Interdisciplinary symposium:

‘An Alchemy of the Intentional and the Unintended’: theoretical and methodological possibilities of Cedric Robinson’s ‘racial regimes’

Contributors:
Paul Bagguley
Alex Charnley
Munotida Chinyanga
Yasmin Hussain
Malcolm James
Alana Lentin
Ali Meghji
Joshua Myers
Mai Omer
H.L.T. Quan
Penny Rabiger
Fatima Rajina
Naaz Rashid
Victoria Redclift
Sudip Sen
Tom Six

03 - 04 July
University College London

Programme

Thursday 3 July

10.30-11 - Arrival & Registration

11-12.30 - Welcome (Alana Lentin & Tom Six)

Alana Lentin - Resisting the Racial Regime

12.30-1.30 - Lunch

1.30-3 - Racial Regimes in Media

Munotida Chinyanga - Crash Out: Refusal as Record, Atmosphere
as Evidence

Mai Omer - Political Hallucinations: Colonial neural networks and the Zionist latent space

Malcolm James - Fatalism

3-3.30 - Break

3.30-4.30 - Racial Regimes in Education

Penny Rabiger - Against Completion Culture: Permanent anti-racism in resistance to permanent racism in schools

Paul Bagguley & Yasmin Hussain - The University as a Racial Regime

4.30-5 - Interlude

Sudip Sen - Off White

5-6 - Keynote

H.L.T Quan - 'The Robinsonian Method': A Modest Intervention

Friday 4 July

10.30-11.30 - Theoretical Dimensions of Racial Regimes

Alex Charnley - Race and the Long Durée in Western Thought: A comparative analysis of Theodor Adorno's historical-philosophical critique of 'identity' and Cedric Robinson's racial regimes

Tom Six - 'Contrivances, Designed and Delegated': On the theatricality of racial regimes

11.30-12 - Break

12-1 - Keynote

Ali Meghji - Following the Global Colorline, Following Theory

1-2 pm - Lunch (catered)

2-3 - Keynote

Joshua Myers - The Racial Regime and Cedric J. Robinson's Magnum Opus

3-3.30 - Break

3.30-4.30 - Social Relations in Racial Regimes

Shifana Niyas - Theoretical and methodological possibilities of Cedric Robinson's racial regime

Naaz Rashid & Victoria Redclift - Situated Citizenship: From Brick Lane to Little Bangladesh

4.30-5.30 - Final Discussion: Building a Racial Regimes Research Network